

Lunch about Life Discussions

Please visit <https://olemiss.edu/hrtraining> to register for Lunch about Life Discussions.

Lunch about Life Discussions are sponsored by the Office of the Provost and Department of Human Resources and hosted by the Career-Life Connector Initiative. The purpose of Lunch about Life Discussions is to provide a venue for faculty and staff to network and share information with others experiencing similar work-life circumstances.

Upcoming Lunch about Life Discussions:

September 25, 12:00pm-1:00-pm, 326 Student Union

Children with Educational Differences: Navigating Oxford and Lafayette Schools
(Conversation facilitated by Kate Centellas, Croft Associate Professor of Anthropology, and Kelly Brown Houston, Administrative Coordinator I)

October 23, 12:00pm-1:00-pm, 321 Student Union

Caring for Older Adults
(Conversation facilitated by Jo Ann O'Quin, Professor Emerita of Social Work)

November 20, 12:00pm-1:00-pm, 321 Student Union

Earning Your Degree – Balancing Work and Classes
(Conversation facilitated by Kathy Knight, Professor of Nutrition and Hospitality Management)

